

QUALITY POLICY

Wireless Media Ltd. is the company mainly engaged in design, development, and implementation of WEB software solutions in domain of digital media, telecommunication technologies and e-commerce. Aiming to maintain the position of the regional leader, Wireless Media Ltd. decided to adopt a Quality Policy based on:

- Maintaining of high standards in the development of qualitative applicative solutions, professional approach to work, teamwork, know-how and qualified personnel,
- Maintaining of high standards in software solutions development as well as market competitiveness by constant adjustment to new mobile technology trends and observing of their fast growth,
- Continuous meeting of complex needs of our clients and end users,
- Constant development and education of our employees through various trainings, courses, seminars as well as research and studies in the field of new technologies, crucial for software solution development.
- Constant improvement of organizational and management processes.
- Devotion to meeting all applicable ISO 9001 standard demands and constant management system improvement by quality.

In achieving these objectives, I expect the support of all employees.

Belgrade, 27.01.2023

CEO

Jadranka Radonjić

